

Located within the UNESCO-listed Val d'Orcia Natural Park, in the prestigious Brunello di Montalcino wine-making region, Rosewood Castiglion del Bosco is a 5,000-acre country estate founded by Massimo and Chiara Ferragamo. The 800-year-old estate comprises the ancient castle ruins, a medieval church, and the Borgo, a historic village that now forms the heart of the resort. Rosewood Castiglion del Bosco is a unique combination: it's an elegant home away from home in a pristine swathe of rural Tuscany, and a superb culinary destination. A living community, it is dedicated to the celebration of authentic local delights, with two restaurants, a cooking school, an organic kitchen garden and a pampering Spa, plus a wide range of sport and fitness facilities and outdoor activities. The estate also embraces a historic Brunello di Montalcino winery and the members-only The Club, a magnificent private 18-hole golf course and clubhouse.
