HISTORY of ISOLA DELLE ROSE

Isola delle Rose is the youngest island in the Venetian lagoon, ‘created’ in 1870, and our high contemporary design keeps us the most youthful in style. In 2010 JW Marriott envisaged a luxury resort on the island, Italian designer Matteo Thun was commissioned and the resort opened in 2015 to huge acclaim and awards.

Today guests come to enjoy the cooler climate ushered in on the marine currents after touring the sun beaten streets of Venice, and it was always so. As soon as Isola delle Rose was habitable it was sought out for the salutary breeze, for 60 years the island was home to a clinic. In 1980 the island’s flourishing plants and rose beds were tended by a Capuchin friar, Padre Policarpo. His name comes from the Greek word polykarpos meaning rich in fruit, we feel his spirit infuses the fertile gardens and orchards to delight guests of JW Marriott Venice.

INTERIOR DESIGN

“It’s all about luxury through subtraction without creating waste” says Thun.

Thun is known for his sustainable, holistic outlook. He worked with the existing 19 buildings, protecting the 1920s character, with his ‘box in a box’ concept. Buildings are also integrated with the landscape – an effect achieved with paths, canals and dense foliage which in turn create a sense of privacy and space. Many rooms face the lagoon or gardens to enhance the sense of seclusion. The resort reflects the lagoon’s spirit – water, slowness, and silence.

Emphasis is placed on Venetian artisans with fabrics from Rubelli, bathroom architecture from Zucchetti, and Matteo Thun’s signature tables made of wood from the lagoon.

Thun also referenced the glass-blowing traditions of nearby Murano Island with customised light installations designed in collaboration with Barovier and Toso Venice and spherical Laguna Lamps, designed exclusively for the hotel with Antonio Rodriguez, made from hand-blown glass by Italian firm Artemide.

Thanks to its outstanding architecture and interior design, JW Marriott Venice Resort & Spa has been awarded the title of Best Hotel & Tourism Resort Design at the MIPIM 2016 Awards.

LOCATION

The resort is located on its own private island in Venice, Isola delle Rose. The island offers a serene retreat from where you can explore the beauties of Venice and at the same time indulge in the luxury of a Resort.

The bustling central island with world renowned St. Mark's Square is just few minutes away across the lagoon, via complimentary shuttle service.

Courtesy Boat Service

A complimentary boat service is available on a regular schedule, offering a pleasant ride across the smooth Lagoon to and from St. Mark's Square. The private dock in St. Mark's is located just in front of the Royal Gardens.

Directions

Venice Marco Polo International airport is 40 minutes away from the resort by water taxi, while Piazzale Roma and Venezia Santa Lucia train station are 30 minutes away from the resort. Meet & Greet VIP airport pick up is available on request.

ROOMS & SUITES

A sense of effortless sophistication, enhanced with the thoughtful comforts of home and enriched by floor-to-ceiling windows flooding the space with natural light and offering charming views of Venice or the resort's lush formal gardens: each guest room represents the height of contemporary comfort and Mediterranean style.

The 266 rooms and suites, conceived by the archistar Matteo Thun, contribute and further enhance a unique stay to all guests. An expansive shower and a free-standing bathtub are just two little luxuries that make our guest rooms extra-special.

Two distinct accommodation experiences – the JW and JW Retreats, divided into La Residenza, L'Uliveto, La Maisonette, Villa Rose – welcome guests in some different, enchanting corners of Isola delle Rose. For the best choice in terms of privacy and intimacy, Villa Rose is the hidden retreat of the Resort, for independent souls seeking total peace and privacy.

The JW

The JW rooms and suites are situated in the main building of our Resort. Arrival by boat is a distinctly glamorous experience.

Design is by Matteo Thun, renowned for delivering up the soul of a place. His inspiration was the lagoon and park capturing lightness, tranquillity and space, which distinguishes the rooms and suites at JW Marriott Venice. Interiors present a chameleonic, metropolitan mix of no-design in natural hues with one-off artistic pieces.

There are interconnecting options for families, Studio Suites have separate living rooms and our Premium Suite features a spectacular terrace over the park.

L'Uliveto

Facing the olive groves, our Uliveto residence is instilled with a sense of refreshing tranquility.

DINING

Glamorous and contemporary, with an attention to local flavors and Italian culinary tradition, restaurants and bars at JW Marriott Venice Resort & Spa offer different combination of dining experiences, where guests can enjoy quiet time with beloved ones, and family experiences with younger travelers without leaving the resort.

Restaurants

Cucina Daily Restaurant

Deliciously enticing aromas drift out of Cucina's kitchens in the morning with baskets of freshly baked bread. Throughout the summer evenings ovens fire up for traditional Italian pizzas.

Our team of chefs await your orders, breakfast prepared exactly how you prefer, evening pizzas topped to your wishes. All the ingredients are fresh as the day.

Dine inside or on the terrace in Venetian sunlight, surrounded by green gardens. A lovely relaxed atmosphere for our families.

Sagra Rooftop Restaurant

Raise a natural high inhaling the 360-degree views over our park, the lagoon and Venice skyline at the rooftop Sagra restaurant. Relax amidst designer Matteo Thun's shades of blue connecting with sky and sea.

Named for 'Sagra', a typical festival of food, our assaggi concept, of sharing platters, offers your table a culinary journey through Italy from the northern hills of the Piedmont to fresh catch from the southern shores. Evenings are energetically sociable as guests enthuse over amberjack crudo, rich and creamy mozzarella with aubergine, or Italy's famously tender Fassone beef. Begin dinner with Venetian cicchetti, small bites, and an aperitivo.

Lunchtime entices with zesty salads, primi pastas, fish from Rialto market and irresistible homemade gelato.

Fiola at Dopolavoro Restaurant

Fabio Trabocchi brings his acclaimed Michelin-starred Fiola fine dining concept to Dopolavoro Venezia. Dishes combine seasonal ingredients locally sourced from Venice's famous Rialto Market as well as organic vegetables from our kitchen gardens and our home grown olive oil.

Arriving at the Private Dock is beautifully glamorous, while the dining room showcases architect Matteo Thun's linear chic, while continuity between interior and exterior create a calm atmosphere. The menu responds to daily market produce, with a twist on traditional Venetian cuisine. Standout dishes such as Fiola Lobster Ravioli, Bassano White Asparagus and Caviar, Foie Gras alla Veneziana, soft-shell crabs from the Venetian lagoon, and Vanilla Fried Pastry Cream with Corbezzolo Honey. Trabocchi's modern take on Venetian cicchetti (local bites) are perfect with an aperitivo.

Giardino

Close to the Family Pool, shaded by trees and shrubs the Giardino Restaurant is a cool spot for informal lunches. For casual lunching on the lawn ask for our Chic-nic service – we will pack you up lunch and a rug to enjoy anywhere you wish in the park.

The family focused menu features baby margheritas, bruschetta, couscous and caprese salads, with large and small platter family combinations. Quench your thirst with mocktails, cocktails and crushed iced juices. For dessert there is watermelon mousse and homemade gelato, one scoop, two or three!

Bars

Rose Lounge Bar

Designed for the best traditions of the Italian café but in Matteo Thun style, with contemporary lines and reflecting a stylish symmetry with the exterior.

Coffee and pastry, cocktails and cicchetti, or a light lunch are all on the menu. Five evenings a week bring the popular pop-up Sushi Bar. Other evenings Rose Lounge transforms into a piano bar with our cigar humidor on offer for mellow relaxation.

People rendezvous, or pause in passing, the Rose Lounge is the sociable centre of JW Venice.

Sagra Poolside Bar

Step up from the pool to Sagra for breathtaking views and refreshments. On the fourth floor Pool Deck you have 360° panorama of the lagoon, Venetian skyline and the entire Isola delle Rose. The atmosphere is casual and sophisticated, a homage to the charm of the 1930s. Sip crushed iced drinks and sparkling flutes of champagne, with cicchetti, typical Venetian snacks.

Dispensa Delicatessen

A superb range of Italian wines, salamis, cheese and other delicatessen items, artisanal sweets, aromatic coffee and pastas. Dispensa offers guests a taste of Venetian deli shopping and the memorable flavours of Isola delle Rose.

Step in to enjoy quick refreshments at the counter, an espresso, an Italian panino or pastry. Stay for an impromptu olive oil or wine tasting, and collect some gifts to savour the flavours of Italy at home.

Vegetable Garden

Isola delle Rose's soil is rich with minerals and nutrients, imparting a distinctive flavour to all our homegrown produce. We place great emphasis on sustainability, continually recycling and enriching the soil.

We have 100 olive trees and handpick, cold-press and age Isola delle Rose olive oil which is used in Fiola at Dopolavoro Venezia. Many of the vegetables and fruits on the menu are grown in our chef's gardens.

A unique olive oil

Due to our private island's location between the lagoon and the sea, as well as marine currents that generate a mild and cool microclimate, our resort boasts a wealth of plants that cannot be found anywhere else in Venice. This includes a historic olive grove with a hundred trees from which we produce our own olive oil. We grow, handpick, cold-press and age our olive oil extracted from Isola delle Rose. Our unique soil – rich in minerals and nutrients – and century-old olive trees have produced a unique and distinctive tasting olive oil. We are extremely proud and enthusiastic about this product. Extra Virgin Olive Oil is deemed to have a superior taste and is the highest quality olive oil in the world.

Olive oil can be savored not only at our fine dining Fiola at Dopolavoro Venezia – which served it paired with our home-made bread – but also during one of our weekly Olive Oil Tasting experiences. Bottles of our Olive Oil are available for purchase at Dispensa.

RECREATION ACTIVITIES & EXPERIENCES

The experience of freedom, the opportunity to devote time to our family, to our children and, of course, our passions. In fact the resort offers a series of highly agreeable activities that will help you to appreciate the beauty of the Isola delle Rose and to discover Venice and its traditions.

Sapori Cooking Academy

The most authentic side of Venice, always fresh and different in every season, is to be found early in the morning among the stalls selling vegetables and fish at the Rialto market. The first to arrive, are the pupils of our Sapori, a true culinary academy where you can learn to prepare a whole menu, ranging from the Venetian tradition, including cicchetti (to be studied first-hand at the best of the Venetian wine bars called bacari), to the great classics of Italian cuisine.

Choose among our two main cooking experiences: "Authentic Venice" (6 hrs.) or one of 2-hours afternoon classes.

In the school's kitchen, located behind the Dispensa on the ground floor of the Hotel, pupils will find six cooking stations fitted with every accessory and above all a relaxed, warm and friendly atmosphere like that of the kitchens of old.

A small curiosity: the large table that holds the dishes of our guests was created by Matteo Thun, architect of the entire resort, out of the wood of an old Venetian briccola or dolphin.

Tastings

At Isola delle Rose we carefully select unique culinary experiences. JW Guests can enjoy personalized cooking classes at Sapori Cooking Academy, but also olive oil tastings, tours of the Fiola at Dopolavoro Venezia Restaurant organic vegetable garden and wine experiences.

It is olive harvest season every autumn at Isola delle Rose. From our 100 olive trees, we pick olives and extract our unique olive oil - the only one produced in Venice and exclusively served at our Fiola at Dopolavoro Venezia Restaurant.

Weekly tours of our organic vegetable garden are organized, to learn about the produce growing on our island. Our farmer personally shows guests the botanical gardens, from which Chef Fabio Trabocchi handpicks most of his ingredients for the menu of our Fiola at Dopolavoro Venezia Restaurant.

And for wine lovers, our weekly Wine Experience is an appointment not to be missed: guests meet at Fiola at Dopolavoro and can taste 6 different wines by the glass, carefully selected by our Sommelier.

Sports

There are plenty of sport activities to do at our Isola delle Rose! Start exploring our Island by JW bicycles, enjoy jogging early in the morning surrounded by the century-old park, relax with yoga classes, or have fun and reconnect with loved ones by enjoying games and other activities at our Sports Field.

Close to JW Venice Spa, there is also our Fitness Room, featuring a wide range of Technogym equipment.

Kids Activities

At Isola delle Rose we take great care of our youngest guests: our lovely Recreation Team offer daily outdoor and indoor activities for kids, who can meet new friends at the Kid's Club or around our Family Pool, surrounded by the century-old park.

Kid's Club - which is included in the Resort Package - is available for children from 4- to 12-years old and is open every day from 10.00 a.m. until 6.00 p.m.

We also offer some selected activities, which are ideal for Families: our Chef can happily give culinary tips at the Saponi Cooking Academy, if you attend one of his cooking classes - kids usually love to learn how to create and cook the typical Venetian biscuits!

Should you wish to spend some pleasant free time and have fun while reconnecting with loved ones by enjoying games and other activities, our Sports Field is ideal for you. And don't forget to explore our island using our JW Bicycles - we provide bikes for adults and kids.

For your family dining experience, our Sagra Rooftop Restaurant offers a tasteful Kid's Menu... or you can consider to enjoy a pic-nic style lunch in the park, at the Giardino Restaurant!

Breakout Rooms

Five meeting rooms of different dimensions are ideal for smaller meetings, from 15 up to 100 participants. All breakout rooms are natural day-lighted and feature a private terrace, perfect to host open-air coffee breaks, with a direct view of Venice and the Lagoon.

Church

Taking its soul from a Neo-Romanesque Revival style of the beginning of the 20th century, the San Marco Hall (formerly the Church) of Isola delle Rose, no longer used for religious services, is a sober presence of authentic appeal inside the resort. The composed beauty of its single nave is the ideal setting for a meeting of high culture, a concert, an artistical presentation, a refined conference or an exclusive dinner. San Marco Hall (formerly the Church) is enriched by two original majestic Murano chandeliers.

The JW

The JW hosts two state of the art meeting rooms ideal for cocktails, showrooms and private functions. With high ceilings, wide glass walls and an elegant design, The Griffin caters to those seeking a sophisticated venue for their meeting. The natural sensation of continuity between inside and outside is the distinctive trait of La Certosa, featuring a direct access to the century-old park.

Terraces

In front stretches the greatest watercolor in the world, where the sky turns into water over the skyline of Venice. Could there be a more breathtaking setting for a surprising event, in one of our private terraces? From sunset to the first light of dawn, the lagoon is pure enchantment.
