Locanda Don Serafino

In the maze of little streets and baroque churches of Ragusa Ibla, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, you can find Locanda Don Serafino, one of the finest restaurants in Sicily and hotel.

Near the ramparts of the lower section of the city, it is housed in the former barn of the palace, under the high vaulted ceilings of exposed stone. One-Michelin-star chef Vincenzo Candiano sources his ingredients exclusively from the island, yet draws his inspiration from well beyond the Mediterranean to elevate Sicilian cuisine with his own style.

Just a few streets away, the rooms of unrivalled charm, and partially carved into the rock, are located in a building from the 19th century.

Our cuisine is based on local tradition, offering refined and elegantly presented dishes: mackerel with tender courgette leaves and tomato “capuliatu”, carob ravioli stuffed with D.P.O. Ragusano cheese, noodles with carob, tuna roe and cherry tomatoes, rabbit with bacon and Bronte pistachio, yellow-fin tuna on Modica caponata, Ragusano cheese dessert with thyme honey on a puff pastry: these are only some of the specialities suggested by our chef Vincenzo Candiano according to the course of the seasons.
