

PRESS RELEASE

FALKENSTEINER RESORT CAPO BOI IS THE SET OF THE OSCAR CANDIDATE FILM FROM AUSTRIA, AVAILABLE ON NETFLIX ITALY STARTING FROM 11 NOVEMBER 2020

Villasimius, 9th of November 2020

"Action!" During the summer of 2019, the well-known phrase associated with the world of film shooting must have often been heard at the Falkensteiner Resort Capo Boi in Villasimius, in the province of Cagliari, Sardinia, Italy. The five-star hotel was in fact the set for the drama "What we wanted" ("La vita che volevamo" in Italian), the movie Austria nominated for the Academy Awards 2020 as Best Foreign Film. From November 11th 2020, the new film starring Lavinia Wilson and Elyas M'Barek will be available in Italy on Netflix, offering Italian audiences scenarios and inspiration for next summer 2021. Immersed in the lush greenery of an authentic Sardinian landscape, and located in the Marine Protected Area of Capo Carbonara, the Premium Collection hotel of the South Tyrolean hotel group Falkensteiner Hotels & Residences offers enchanting corners and views, perfect for the big screen and fantastic to discover on holiday. The crystal clear water and the private beach with white sand invite you to spend quality family time. Among the many activities that can be performed here, snorkelling and diving are among the best and always guided directly from the hotel's school team, to discover the wealth of fauna and flora of this enchanting underwater world. For children from three to twelve years old, Falky-Land offers numerous games and entertainment opportunities, including a park for outdoor activities, a mini-cinema and a zoo with pets and farm animals. Children aged twelve to seventeen participate in the Teenie Club's weekly programme. The Acquapura SPA with an infinity pool and a rich menu of wellness treatments guarantees slow living moments and deceleration. From an architectural point of view, the resort impresses with the Moorish style of the building and the light colours combined with Mediterranean shades that characterise the interior design. The resort will start the next summer season in April. Accommodation in a double room can be booked from 299 euros with double occupancy.

These wonderful scenarios, so evocative that they have become the setting for an Oscar nominated film, will be visible to the Italian public from Wednesday November 11th on Netflix when "La vita che volevamo" will be made available to users of the streaming platform.
