A Connected Address

The ultimate sophisticate and arbiter, The St. Regis Venice, combines historic legacy with modern luxury in a privileged location beside the Grand Canal surrounded by views across some of Venice's most iconic landmarks. Avant-garde in outlook and evolutionary in design, the hotel is an expression of the cultural curiosity of Venice and the innovation of modern-day against a pedigreed backdrop.

Accommodations

Celebrating the modern spirit of Venice and the pleasurable embrace of its water and light plays, the 130 guestrooms and 39 suites of The St. Regis Venice immerse visitors in the captivating beauty of the destination. Accommodations, many with furnished private terrace or small balcony, are an invitation to indulge in some of the most extraordinary views over the Grand Canal, the private Italianate garden, or the stunning rooftops and traditional calle of this romantic city.

The Best of Venice.

Home to merchants, royalty, artists and explorers, the hotel, like the city, is steeped in legend and character. The traditional build with stone, columned balconies is flanked by the Grand Canal with its luminous quality of shifting light, and a private pontoon to welcome guests. Behind, lies the street of Calle XXII Marzo, full of elite boutiques, and contemporary art galleries, and access to Grand Teatro La Fenice, the city's temple of opera. With Piazza San Marco just four minutes' walk from the hotel, Venice's treasures are within easy discovery.

Social Events, Weddings, & Meetings

For celebratory gatherings and more formal functions, the hotel has a choice of areas that transform easily to host a select number of guests, supported by an extensive menu of inspirational cuisine. Crafted occasions are held in the Library, with its urbane atmosphere, well-appointed lounge and adjacent John Jacob Astor Boardroom. The Canaletto Room embodies the contemporary spirit of a Venetian palazzo and impressive ballroom, presenting an ideal backdrop for significant celebrations.

Dining

Italian at heart, Gio's restaurant redefines Italian cuisine, offering an elevated journey of destination-specific dishes. Bringing a flourish to the whole experience, simple iconic dishes are perfected at the table, flavorings are personalized and local, fresh ingredients reflect seasonality. The intimate Arts Bar serves art-inspired modern and classic cocktails with a disruptive twist. A reflection of the artistic and cultural vibe of Venice, this uniquely themed area transforms as evening arrives, spilling with casual elegance onto the outdoor terrace. Shaking tradition from breakfast all the way to dinner, at the St. Regis Bar the unexpected selection of contemporary Venetian drinks, cocktails and food shares the scene with superb views of the Grand Canal and its monument-lined banks.
