

SPLENDE A ROMA UNA NUOVA LUCE

In the very heart of the Eternal City, only a short stroll away from the Spanish Steps and the exclusive shopping district, in a small alley that leads to the Tiber river, once called Vicolo del Melangolo, a new stunning luxury boutique hotel recently opened its doors, promising an unprecedented experience within the panorama of the Capitoline Hotellerie.

Perfectly located to discover the real essence of Rome, the Vilòn is a great base to explore the city and get lost in the small and ancient alleys of the Eternal City, finding hidden secret corners.

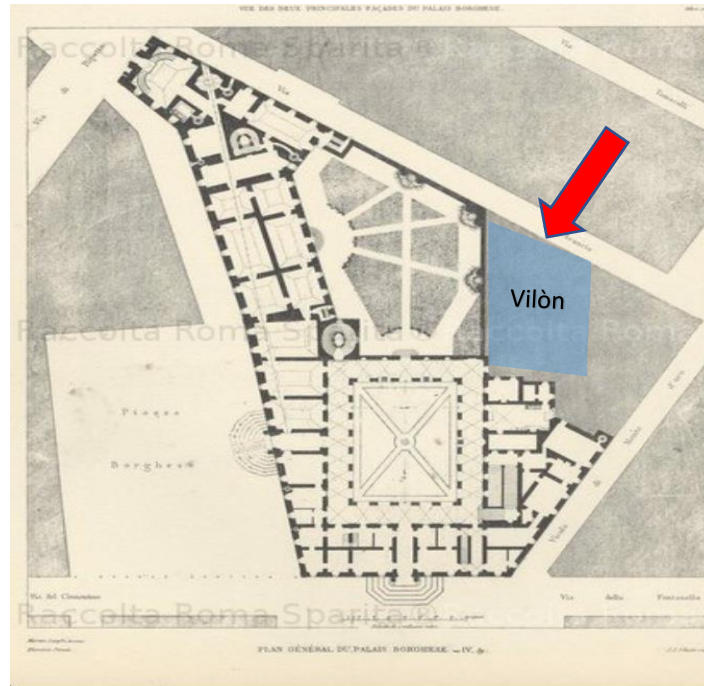

Walking distance from the main attractions:

- Spanish Steps: 7 minutes
- Pantheon: 9 minutes
- Trevi Fountain: 12 minutes
- Piazza Navona: 10 minutes
- Roman Forum and Colosseum: 27 minutes
- San Peter's Basilica and Vatican Museum: 30 minutes

Intricately tied to Rome's history, the revived historic mansion dates back to the mid-sixteenth century when it was held by the Borghese family and was known as the "House annexed to Palazzo Borghese". In 1841 the palace became, by will of Princess Adelaide Borghese de la Rochefacault, School for Maidens and it was then further entrusted to the French nuns of the Daughters of the Cross until recently.

And through the wide windows of the majority of our rooms (11 out of 18), guests can enjoy a breathtaking sunny view of the private garden of Palazzo Borghese, which in 1997 won the Sotheby's award for best restoration.

Rooms and Suites

The Vilòn hides within its ancient, fully refurbished walls, 18 precious gems. The rooms and suites provide an inviting bright ambiance ranging from intimate cozy bedrooms to unique original suites, many of which have private terraces with exclusive views of the Borghese Palace Gardens. Hotel Vilòn provides a new perspective of luxury ensuring that guests not only fall in love with the property but also perceive the cozy home feeling.

Vilòn Terrace Suite Garden

Their charming and peaceful private terraces overlooking the breathtaking garden of Palazzo Borghese are the highlight of these unique suites. Both located on the second floor and enlightened with bright natural light, they provide an average of 75 sq. mt. including the furnished terraces. Despite being similar in their endless charm and exclusive atmosphere, these two suites provide different uniquenesses. While the Melangolo Terrace Suite Garden allows separated bedroom and living room, that can accommodate a third guest, the Borghese Terrace Suite Garden, will surprise you with an intimate vanity area and a refined 30 sq. mt. marble bathroom, featuring together with double sink, a double walking rain shower and a “burlesque” bathtub!

Adelaide

In honour of the Princess Borghese, the name of our restaurant “Adelaide” and the bar lounge, familiarly called “Adelaide In Salotto” (in the living room). Opened all day long, it ensures delicious experiences to the guests in house, but also to the external ones, creating an international yet Roman authentic atmosphere.

Adelaide

In a very charming and relaxing atmosphere, Adelaide offers a unique culinary experience in which simplicity, tradition and technique are perfectly combined to assure in every bite the truest and greatest tastes.

The menu changes according to the seasons and includes classics of the Roman tradition with fresh modern twists. Sunday's lunches are dedicated to “Il Pranzo della Domenica” when, according the local market’s offer, the Executive Chef Gabriele Muro expresses his creativity at the best.

Achilleide

In addition to the stylish and cozy dining room, the green outdoor patio dedicates a relaxing bohemian space where, especially during the warm seasons, is possible to enjoy breakfast, lunch, dinner and drinks "al fresco".

Not just a pretty face, the Vilòn universe is much more...
We are looking forward to welcoming you and letting you experience it by yourself!
