

MASSERIA ΜΟΠΤΕΠΑΡΟΛΕΟΠΕ

Masseria Montenapoleone is a 17th century farmhouse reconvered into a gateway of biodiversity and rural hospitality. The masseria stands on a rocky settlement in the enchanting plain of centuries-old olive groves in the area of Fasano. For centuries the sea has looked at it, whispering the sounds of undertow and iodine perfumes. The light, flavors and colors of Puglia entertain our guests with dedication and passion. Still active as an organic farm, we respect the culinary tradition and reinterpret it with a contemporary touch at La Falegnameria restaurant. We design experiences that lead our guests to the heart of Nature. In our MM Atelier we produce all the pieces of furniture which are in the rooms and common areas. We give a new life to old objects, with the desire to be sustainable and creative at the same time.
