

INTRODUCTION

Tucked away in one of Rome's most aristocratic and charming neighbourhoods, in the Regola Rione between Via Giulia and Corso Vittorio Emanuele, a new concept of luxury hospitality has opened. Dedicated to demanding and expert travelers, it offers an innovative focus on the world of fine wines.

Hotel De' Ricci is a boutique hotel opened in 2017 with only 8 Suites: an ideal residence for wine lovers who can find a vast and cultured selection of more than 1,500 labels and a team of experts capable of creating a custom-made experience.

The Hotel Staff, in fact, is composed of professional Sommeliers. Guests can be guided through a memorable itinerary, from the first welcome aperitif to private wine tastings, meetings with wine producers and even private tours, to discover the best cellars and vineyards on the territory.

The idea was conceived by Hotel De' Ricci's owner Lorenzo Lisi, also Manager of the historic restaurant of the Pierluigi family at Piazza de' Ricci, famous and admired reference in the Capital: "I wanted to integrate my experience in food and beverages in a project of hôtellerie," explained Lisi "seeking to combine that passion for wine and fine living that is experienced at Pierluigi Restaurant. Everyday I live Rome in its most international dimensions, and I realized that there was a need to transfer the lustre and Italian charm, with a bit of a nostalgic decor, to this new concept, together with an immaculate service, excellent wine cellar and a bar in which clients can enjoy themselves in a private space".

Competent, customized care is the key behind the philosophy of Hotel De' Ricci: breakfast is served in the privacy of the Guest's Suite or on its terrace, the in-Suite wine cellar is personalized according to the Guest's desires.

In addition, on the ground floor of this All-Suite Hotel, Guests can gain access to Charade bar inspired by the concept of the exclusive Gentlemen's Club of the past. Here, the CocktailList offers classics and signature creations and an extraordinary selection of sparkling wines, whites and reds to drink by the glass, and to pair with quick and delectable proposals, prepared at the moment in the bar's small kitchen.

HOTEL DE' RICCI | Location

Hotel De' Ricci occupies a luxury apartment building on Via della Barchetta 14, just off the peaceful Piazza de' Ricci. Both are in the heart of the Regola Rione, one of the most authentic neighbourhoods in Rome, famous for its antique dealers, art galleries and historic wine shops.

The Hotel's position is strategic, in the center of the most important artistic triangle of the Capital: within walking distance are the Vatican City, St. Peter's Basilica, Piazza Navona and the Pantheon. Via Giulia, one of the "noblest" streets in Rome, is literally just around the corner. In a few minutes, down the street is the elegant Piazza Farnese - with its famous Farnese Palace designed by Antonioda Sangallo il Giovane and completed by Michelangelo, today seat of the French Embassy. Just steps away is Campo de' Fiori, with its dynamic morning market coloured with fresh fruit, vegetables and flowers and its evening transformation into a popular night life scene. Within a 15-minute walk is the Roman Ghetto with its traditional Jewish-Roman culinary specialities.

It's a treat to simply step out of Hotel De' Ricci and wander about the distinctive Roman cobblestones (sanpietrini) or sit at a table at one of the many wine bars. And it's a delight to relish the slow rhythm of a neighbourhood that has maintained its most authentic character and at the same time is now living a true enogastronomic renaissance.
