YOUR NATURAL HIDEAWAY³

Philosophy of Castello Dal Pozzo

“To welcome guests into your own home is a very intimate gesture. To take care of and dedicate oneself to those that choose us is our way of reciprocating their belief in us.”

Aimone Dal Pozzo | CEO Castello Dal Pozzo

The origins of the Dal Pozzo family are ancient, and their history has been traced to the descendants of the hero Aeneas, who left Troy, together with his father Anchises and his son Ascanius around 1200 BC. His son generated two distinct branches of the family, those known as the Giullii Cesari and those as Giullii Libonii or Scribonii. The Emperor Julius Cesar descended from the first of the two branches, whilst from the second descends the Dal Pozzo family. This noble Roman family later spread out into various Italian cities, including Milan, Venice, Pavia and Alessandria and it is from the latter branch that the present day family in Oleggio Castello directly descends.

Hospitality, something in which the family has always prided itself, is nowadays reinterpreted in a modern way in order to ensure that today's millennium travellers enjoy an unrivalled experience whilst staying at the resort.

OUR COMPANY CORE VALUES

HOSPITALITÉ: We take pride in interpreting the concept of Hospitality with style and passion, in keeping with tradition.

HISTORIQUE: We take pride in descending from a thousand years of History, and in being an integral part of its future success.

HOTELLERIE: We embody the union of hospitality and history, harmonising the differing professional abilities that together create the essence of excellence.

Our staff

Although it is a family run company, the Castello Dal Pozzo organisation follows a management style blueprint where a highly qualified management and sales team together with the vision of the family, can give the hotel the character and unique personality it needs to grow and be the best.

Today the ownership of the property is in the hands of the three Dal Pozzo Brothers, Oberto, Vittorio and Cassiano while the daily operations are under the direction of the new generation, Aimone and Guendalina, Cassiano's children

History of Castello Dal Pozzo

Castello Dal Pozzo has a thousand-year history dating from the 10th Century when the remains of a Roman Castrum, a campsite of the Vth Legion, were unearthed.

The Roman Castrum became known as the Q.Legio, successively converted into Olegio, Olezo and subsequently into Oleggio Castello, in honour of the Castello built around the year 1000, by the Visconti family. Around the year 1200 they made their move on Milan, over which they reigned until the death of Filippo Maria in 1447. His only daughter, Bianca, married Francesco Sforza who succeeded his father-in-law. In the following centuries, the Castle was more or less abandoned. It was not until the second half of the 17th century that the descendants of the Visconti family reclaimed the castle. The last of the Visconti d'Aragona, Marquis Alberto, was involved in the nascent struggle for Italian independence from under the dominion of the Hapsburg Empire, known as the "moti carbonari".

Condemned to death he was stripped of all his possessions he passed them to his sister Virginia, wife of Bonifazio Dal Pozzo d'Annone. Their son Claudio (1839-1885) lover of art and architecture, appointed Richard Popwell Pullan, brother-in-law of Burgess and ardent follower of the Gothic Revival Movement of Augustus Pugin, to redesign and rebuild,, thus transforming the ancient walls into a grandiose neo-gothic Victorian castle, said to be "one of the purest reinterpretations of neo-gothic Tudor existing in Italy.

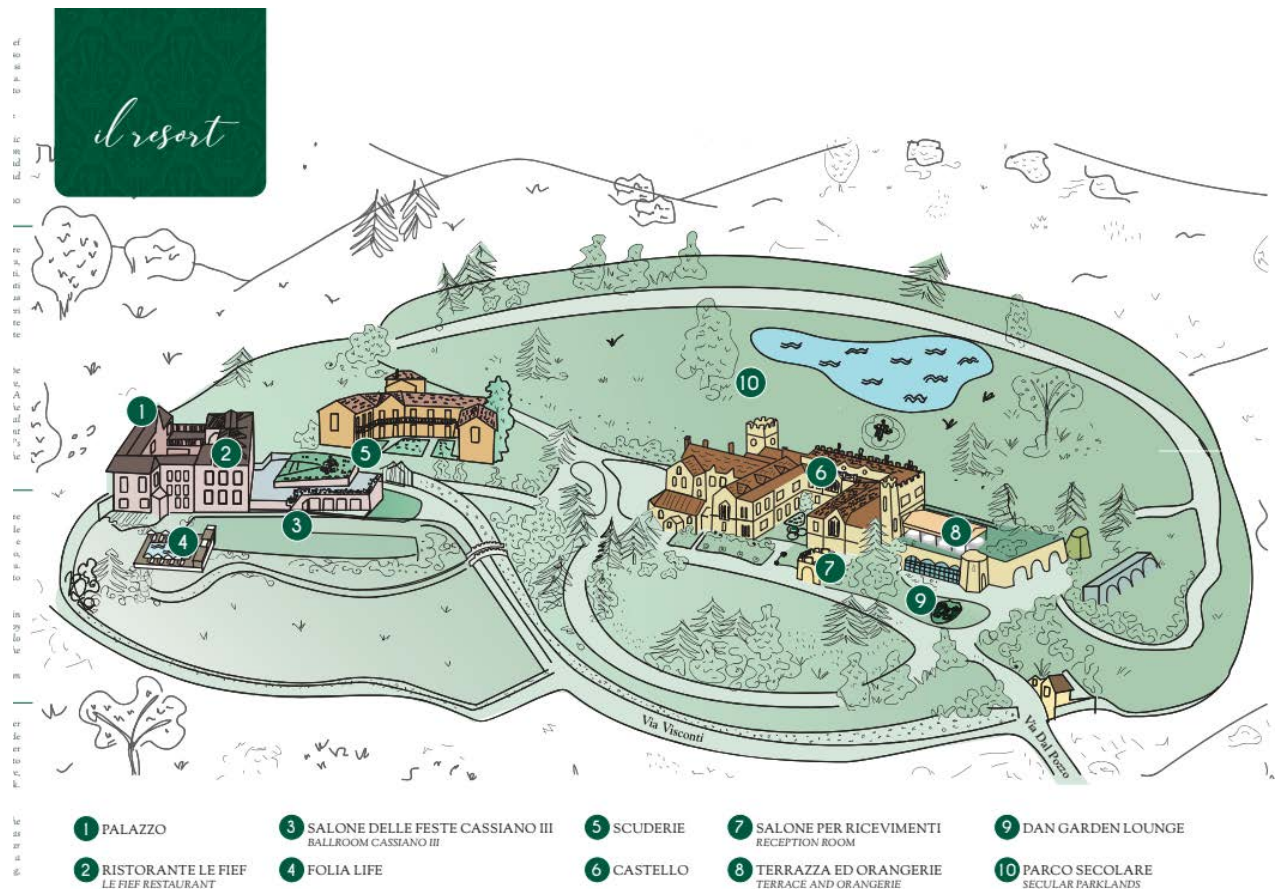

Next to it stands the eighteenth-century Palazzo where he lived, until his death, Alberto Visconti d'Aragona, after having been pardoned. Died in 1885, he is buried, together with his wife Donna Luigia, of the Marquises of Monticelli Obizzi, in the cemetery of Oleggio Castello

The Palazzo was a refuge and home for many local families with the succession of the World Wars. Subsequently, when Oleggio Castello, detached from Paruzzaro became an independent municipality, the Palace, by concession of the family, was the seat of the Municipal School of Oleggio Castello and later abandoned.

In recent years it was renovated and meticulously transformed into a magnificent Luxury Boutique Hotel, intended to project the small and quiet town of Oleggio Castello on the most sought-after international scenario.

The entire property belongs to the Dal Pozzo d'Annone family and is still the seat of the family.

The Castello

The Castello has been defined as one of the purest expressions of Gothic Revival, typical of the late 19th century.

The building presents a very compact exterior with two upstanding towers; the massive, square eastern tower and the smaller, octagonal south-west tower. It is situated 24 hectares, filled with a wide variety of trees and shrubs of botanical interest.

The interior of the Castello is similarly typical of the architecture of the period: stained glass windows, forged iron gates imported from Scotland, bas-reliefs decorate the outer walls, coats of arms and statues of various provenance and of varying historical periods.

The stencils on the walls, the patterns on the tiles and the decorations on the furniture all recall the spirit of the Gothic Revival Movement, spearheaded by Augustus Pugin and perfected in the Castello by its illustrious English architect, Richard Popwell Pullan, brother-in-law to William Burgess who was the forerunner of the Art and Crafts Movement which then led into the Modernists of the early 20th Century.

The restructuring of the Castello has resulted in the creation of a unique location with a romantic and evocative atmosphere. Guests access via the path bordering the delightful English Gardens, designed by Capello, who had been the architect of the gardens belonging to the Dukes of Genoa at Aglié, and enter through the imposing entrance portico.

The rooms

A grand staircase, off to one side, leads up to the bedrooms on the upper floors. The eight bedrooms reserved for guests, open from May to October, are located in the main east wing and each one is named after one of the Noble ladies married into the Dal Pozzo family over the centuries. Cooking Classes | Palazzo

Our Executive Chef will receive you in his kingdom: amongst his pots and pans, mousses, creams and various exquisite dishes he will share with you both his knowledge and, perhaps, some of his secrets.

Depending on the level of preparation of the class, participants will assist in preparing the meal under the guidance of the Chef and with the use of all the necessary facilities.

A pinch of flour, a few ounces of fun, and a great deal of laughter are the necessary ingredients for an enjoyable experience.

Yoga

The ability of yoga to help dial back both physical and mental problems is reason enough to try it. But there's more. Even at this early stage of research, a regular yoga practice appears to correlate with increased wellbeing, including better sleep, better body awareness, weight loss, and greater happiness. By improving mindfulness, it simultaneously helps to boost compassion, gratitude, and "flow" states, all of which contribute to greater happiness. SO enjoy your yoga classes twice weekly while you are staying with us.

Castello Dal Pozzo's mission remains that to exist to be discovered by those who are searching for a precious gem set in historic surroundings, transmitting a feeling of uniqueness and personal attention, which will create memories to treasure and share.

The new emblem represents, on the one hand, a simplification of what Castello Dal Pozzo is but, on the other, an enrichment of what we want to represent. It will become the new companion on the life long trip to implement this historic location idea of modern luxury.

The font, especially designed for Castello Dal Pozzo, gives an aura of exclusivity to the brand and the specific choice of using Italian language to describe the area of Lago Maggiore focuses on the fact that for foreigners, Italy is a dream come true and the location wants to be part of that idea of Dolce Vita that comes to mind when thinking about the Bel Paese.

Guendalina Dal Pozzo, Sales & Marketing Manager of Castello Dal Pozzo, explains the importance of this new logo: "It's still us, but we want to create appeal for that part of the market that comes here from all corners of the world, that chooses us for our uniqueness and for the atmosphere that only such a place can give. This brand-new logo, rich in details, declined in the tones of English green, represents all the passion, love and attention we devote to our work and to welcome our clients. "

April 2018 - Wine Bar transforms into Dan Garden Lounge

May 2019 - Traditional menu and sophistication in a true paradise

The fast highway from the Piedmontese valleys on the border with Sempione and Switzerland gives you Lake Maggiore and takes you down to the sea of Genoa, allowing you to exit in Arona. From here, going towards the city of San Carlone, before the banks of the Verbano, you have arrived: diverted, in a gentle climb, from the center of Oleggio Castello, you will follow two small roads and you are in Paradise on earth, a place of enchantment where you can breathe (in the silence and in the greenery) the history of Italy, the beauty of places treated to the ancient splendor, the charm of a place that has a thousand reasons to let us come and stay. The view gives you the infinite: the castle (a manor founded in year one thousand), a Palazzo, the Scuderie, libraries and corners that have the intimacy of the house of Giacomo Leopardi, a family tree that occupies a wall, rooms and salons for parties and events, an outdoor swimming pool, around fifty perfect rooms, a bar (between the garden and the inside) for a snack or an evening barbecue. All this is due to the courage, commitment and professionalism of a family, to Dal Pozzo d'Annone (father, mother, son and daughter) who lead a handful of collaborators who, in every sector, border on perfection. And then there is the restaurant, the refined dining room with the appropriately distant tables, the smiling and courteous service, where a rich and multi-faceted menu is proposed, based on the classic (fortunately) and on tradition. Menu of the day with complete tasting of four dishes at 70 euros and a menu where you can find a little bit of everything; in richness, the goodness of «simplicity»: sea bass carpaccio with fennel and citrus sauce, poached and fried egg with mashed potatoes and Raschera fondue, Gragnano paccheri with tufts of burrata and tomato sauce Pachino, rice cake creamed with quail breast and leg, flambéed shrimp tails, Piedmontese breed beef fillet with fatty liver escalope, soft gianduia with pear heart, cream puff with mascarpone cream. Full average lunch with 90-100 euros

REPORTAGE

Fabitudine degli osti di ripetere a ogni ordine quel «para usted mi capitán». «A quell'epoca, nella zona montagnosa di Puno, era un drink molto richiesto - spiega Patricia Trujillo, barman del ristorante peruviano Vale un Perù che gestisce a Torino con il marito cuoco -. Faceva freddo e i militari entravano nei bar per scaldarsi. Il pisco, la nostra acquavite, era

I militari lo bevevano nella Sierra di Puno: da qui arriva il nome però troppo alcolico (supera i 40°) e così si cominciò a mischiarla con quelle bottiglie di vermouth (15-18° circa) che arrivavano dall'Europa».

Il vermouth arriva in Perù nel 1859 e la prima marca importata è la Cinzano. La data del primo «sbarco» rende possibile che il Capitán sia nato in quel periodo, quando si racconta si bevesse in bicchierini da amaro in un solo sorso. Tracce scritte compaiono però solo negli Anni 20 del XX secolo, legate all'arrivo degli immigrati italiani a Lima. Quando si diffonde nella capitale, il cocktail inizia a prevedere variazioni: cambia contenitore (il classico bicchiere da Negroni e ultimamente la coppa da Martini) e aggiunge ingredienti. «C'è chi mette l'oliva, chi l'alchechengi - racconta Trujillo -. La mia versione prevede due once di vermouth, una di pisco e cinque gocce di angostura».

«Si tratta di due prodotti originali, il pisco e il vermouth, entrambi con una storia di diversi secoli alle spalle, che si sono incontrati in Perù - osserva il console peruviano a Torino César Jordán -. La forza di questo cocktail è la semplicità e negli ultimi anni, nonostante la popolarità sicuramente maggiore di drink come il pisco sour, sta tornando alla ribalta».

Uno chardonnay con note suadenti e bollicine allegre

Quelle cinque anfore di terracotta, dentro a una cantina che produce ogni anno 48 milioni di bottiglie, mi hanno acceso una lampadina: vuoi vedere che la sperimentazione ha trovato casa nella cantina sociali? La cantina di «Mezzacorona» è certamente all'avanguardia, ambientata in una vera e propria cittadella del vino di 10 ettari. Sono 1.600 i soci conferitori di uve (ma anche di mele) che lavorano su 2.617 ettari di vigneto. Una realtà che ha 114 anni di storia, ma che ha avuto il coraggio di rinnovarsi con un investimento clamoroso per una struttura che è bella e attuale a distanza di 20 anni. Ci sarebbe da scrivere un libro. Anzi, Luca Rigotti, il presidente di «Mezzacorona», lo ha fatto, per presentare il bilancio di sostenibilità del gruppo, un documento leggibile e molto istruttivo per capire il ruolo moderno del mondo cooperativo nel campo del vino. Una cosa mi ha colpito: la formazione continua e la consulenza verso i propri vignaioli, per aiutarli a raggiungere valori qualitativi che poi vengono meglio remunerati.

Ora passiamo ai vini. Il Rotari Flavio riserva 2010 è un Trentodoc eccezionale (100% chardonnay) che ho assaggiato accanto al brut Nature 2008. In entrambi i casi note macerate di frutti esotici, un velluto suadente ed elegante dentro a un sorso finissimo di bollicine allegre: ti lascia la bocca pulita grazie alla sua mineralità e le note di pasticceria sono appena accennate. Grandissimo sarà il campione dei 40 anni, un extrabrut che champagneggia e verrà riprodotto. Dopodiché, cercate il Pinot grigio riserva Castel Firmian 2017 che ha un giallo intenso e una felice nota di pera, e fa il paio con l'immediatazza di uno Chardonnay riserva 2016. Glorioso sarà il Teroldego riserva 2014 dalla nota filigranosa che esalta il mirtillo, ma ancor di più il NOS, ovvero la riserva 2012 di Teroldego che ha tutto il nerbo verde di questo grande vitigno italiano. Ma restate impressionati anche dal Nero d'Avola 2015 della loro cantina di Sambuca (Feudo Arancio), dove emerge il lampone. Un sesto di assaggi che è come un invito, anche per me, a scoprire tutto il resto.

Il bello e il buono

Menu tradizionale e raffinatezza in un vero paradiso

La veloce autostrada che dalle valli piemontesi al confine con il Sempione e la Svizzera vi regala il lago Maggiore e vi fa scendere al mare di Genova, vi permette di uscire al casello di Arona. Da qui, piegate verso la città del San Carlo e, prima delle sponde del Verbano, ercovi arrivati: deviate, in dolce salita, dal centro di Oleggio, percorrete due stradelle e siete nel Paradiso Terrestre, un luogo d'incanto dove si respira (nel silenzio e nel verde) la storia d'Italia, la bellezza di luoghi riportati all'antico splendore, il fascino di un posto che ha mille motivi per farvi venire e fermare. Un drone vi regala l'infinito: il castello (un maniero fondato nel Mille), un palazzo, le scuderie, biblioteche e angoli che hanno l'intimità della casa avvia di Giacomo Leopardi, un albero genealogico che occupa una parete, sale e saloni per feste ed eventi, un parco d'incanto, una piscina olimpionica scoperta, una cinquantina di camere perfette, un bar (tra giardino e interno) per una merenda o un barbecue serale e, tra poche settimane, anche un centro benessere.

Il tutto è dovuto al coraggio, all'impegno e alla professionalità di una famiglia, i Dal Pozzo d'Annone (padre madre figlio e figlia) che guidano un manipolo di collaboratori che, in ogni settore, risentano la perfezione. E poi c'è la ristorazione, la sala raffinata dai tavoli opportunamente distanti, dal servizio sorridente e cortese, dove vi viene proposto un menu ricco e multiforme, sul classico (per fortuna) e sulla tradizione.

Menu del giorno con degustazione completa di quattro piatti a 70 euro e carta dove pescare un po' di tutto e di tutto un po'; in ricchezza, la bontà della «semplicità»: carpaccio di branzino con finocchi e salsa agli agrumi, uovo in camicia e fritto con schiacciata di patate e fonduta al Raschera, paccheri di Gragnano con ciuffetti di burrata e passata di pomodoro Pachino, tortino di riso mantecato con petto e coscia di quaglia, code di mazzancolle fiammate, filetto di bovino di Razza Piemontese con scaloppa di fegato grasso, morbido di giandua con cuore alle pere, bigné con crema di mascarpone. Pranzo medio completo con 90-100 euro.

June 2019 - Folia Life - Frescobaldi Terrace

Castello Dal Pozzo and Marchesi Frescobaldi are pleased to announce a great new partnership for summer 2019. The panoramic terrace of Folia Life and Alie Ammiraglia come together to create a one of a kind combination. Quality and delicacy meet and, mixing the blue of the sky with the rosé of the favourite wine, they create the perfect colour combination for the most anticipated summer of all time.

The scenery is Folia Life, a meeting place, where you can escape from the daily "folly" to immerse yourself in nature, an element that distinguishes these environments. A natural escape that envelops you in the elements of the earth: the breeze from the panoramic terrace, the crystal-clear water of the infinity pool, the scents of centuries-old trees, the unmistakable flavours of our chef's bio-culinary offerings.

The protagonist is the Alie from Ammiraglia estate, which originates in the figure of Greek mythology, one of the sea nymphs, symbol of sensuality and beauty. Alie, an elegant Rosé with a light, pure colour, with light ruby reflections. A refined balance between Syrah and Vermentino, which find their maximum expression in the vicinity of the sea. Aromas of white flowers, wild strawberries and citrus peels come together in a delicate structure with peaks of minerality typical of the Tuscan territory, which give a long and rich finish.

Make Folia Life your favourite destination for a regenerating escape, complete the experience with a glass of Alie by the pool.

Ali di nuvola

Alidinuvola is a children's book that tells of the friendship between Virginia, a little princess who lives at Castello dal Pozzo, and Alidinuvola, a nice and courageous dragon.

It is a children's book, conceived and set by Maria Giovanna Lanfranchi apposta for the Dal Pozzo Castle, a story that speaks of friendship and inclusion. A reflection on the meaning of courage and the strength of reconciliation.

Bright colours, richness of detail and a touch of irony make the book a pleasant pastime for children who venture through the rooms and the lush garden of the castle.
