It is the ideal destination for rejuvenating vacations, cultural explorations, or gastronomic adventures.

The beach is equipped with multiple dining options and also provides opportunities for engaging in various water sports activities, including snorkelling, paddleboarding, and kayaking.

If, instead, Guests desire to spend some of their time exploring the surroundings, the Concierge team at Almar Giardino di Costanza is at their disposal. They will guide them not only in choosing from the many events that will animate the summer of 2023 in this corner of Sicily but also arrange every moment to ensure the resounding success of an unforgettable Mediterranean vacation.

One of the most iconic and exciting moments of the upcoming summer will be the Marsala Kite Fest 2023: the renowned Festival of kitesurfing, wine, and music, now in its third edition, will be held from July 14th to 23rd in the stunning Laguna dello Stagnone. The event combines the thrill of surfers' stunts with the beauty of the landscape and great music, offering a unique experience to all attendees.

The A Scurata - Cunti e canti a calar del sole festival, set to commence on July 21st, will also be held in the salt pans of the Laguna dello Stagnone. The event will be inaugurated by Musica Nuda, the celebrated voice/double-bass duo composed of Petra Magoni and Ferruccio Spinetti, performing their most beloved songs alongside new tracks from their latest album released in March. This year marks the 20th anniversary of their artistic collaboration. The festival, featuring thirteen captivating performances, will culminate with Bennato and Incudine, who will reinterpret the events of the 19th and 20th centuries and the phenomenon of brigandage through their project "Canti Briganti".

Continuing with great concerts, on July 28th, 2023, as part of the Segesta theater festival, Alice will once again lend her splendid voice to one of the most important figures in the Italian artistic panorama between the old and new millennium: Maestro Franco Battiato, whose sophisticated and refined music drew inspiration from singer-songwriter songs and pop, reinterpreting them in a highly personal and ever-changing style.

Until July 23rd, 2023, history and archaeology enthusiasts can explore the ARS AEDIFICANDI exhibition at the Selinunte Archaeological Park. This exhibition holds significant educational and documentary value, as it features the construction sites that were established to erect the magnificent Doric sanctuaries of Selinunte. The exhibition's immersive journey begins at the Cave di Cusa, where the materials for constructing the Selinunte temples were extracted. It then continues on the eastern hill and the Acropolis, where ten "machines," including a crane, carts, and sledges used for transporting stone materials, as well as measuring tools like the corobate (a Roman instrument for measuring slopes of the terrain), have been meticulously reconstructed at full scale.

But more events are announced. From July 16th to 17th, 2023, Trapani will host the National Vespa Rally, an opportunity for enthusiasts of the iconic Italian two-wheeler to come together and celebrate their passion. For sports enthusiasts, the Week of Sports, which will take place from July 21st to 29th at the picturesque Bay of Cornino, will offer sports activities, evening dance and music performances, as well as a wide selection of typical dishes to enjoy while strolling around.

Indeed, this will be a summer full of events and significant opportunities to discover the territory, history, and cultural richness of Western Sicily.
