ARCHITECTURE AND INTERIOR DESIGN

Interior Design: Michele Bönan (The Pickering Room, the Club Restaurant, the Living Room, Rooms & Suites)

Renowned Florentine architect Michele Bönan started his career when he was twenty, when AD magazine published his work for the home of famous tennis player friend Adriano Panatta and other high-profile clients immediately took notice. Whether for private clients or public buildings, Bönan's designs—ranging among hotels, restaurants, estates, and yachts—each possess a distinctive virtuosic excellence. His aesthetic incorporates modern elements and luxuries; but historical architecture, particularly that of his native Florence, always informs his style choices. "Truth before all things" is the inspiration behind all Michele Bönan's work, a mantra he manifests by carefully arranging the desires of his clients into their ideal environment, "translated with pure Italian flair." He works at the same time in many projects all over the world.

Spa Design: Studio Apostoli (Spa)

Studio Apostoli is an atelier of Architecture, Interior Design, Engineering, and Product Design that has as its primary "Mission" to design with the concept of Wellness at the core of every project.

The Club: The experience of Casa Cipriani Milano is distributed over the 4 floors of Palazzo Bernasconi. The entrance at 24 Via Palestro welcomes you with the elegant conciergerie. The ground floor houses the Pickering Room, the fitness center and the beauty center, with access to the spa located in the basement of the building.

The first and second floors are dedicated to hospitality, with 15 rooms and suites, while the third floor features the restaurant and the large panoramic terrace, overlooking the Indro Montanelli Gardens. Finally, the top floor, is entirely occupied by the Living Room.

Rooms & Suites: Designed by Michele Bönan, the 12 rooms and 3 suites of Casa Cipriani Milano offer a timeless elegance where wood is the protagonist. ABOUT CIPRIANI

On May 13, 1931, Giuseppe Cipriani opened Harry's Bar on the first floor of an abandoned rope warehouse off a dead end in Piazza San Marco, Venice. At 50 square meters, it appeared to be a typical "cozy" Venetian restaurant, but with the careful attention to detail and perfectly proportioned furniture, glasses and cutlery Harry's Bar was anything but typical. Unchanged since 1931 and now a National Landmark, its famously relaxed atmosphere, great food, and warm service have catered to a very eclectic clientele that has included through the years Hollywood legends, royalty, artists and people from all over the world. It has been constantly imitated but never reproduced.

In the 92 years since and with three generations of Cipriani family members leading the growth, Arrigo, Giuseppe and his sons Ignazio and Maggio, the family has developed into an international hospitality brand, with restaurants, landmarked event spaces, residential, luxury rooms and suites and private membership clubs around the world including Venice, Milan, New York, Miami, Los Angeles, Mexico City, Dubai, Abu Dhabi, Hong Kong, Monte Carlo, Ibiza, Marbella, Riyadh, Las Vegas, Istanbul, Doha, and the upcoming Manama in Bahrain, Jeddah and Punta del Este.

The timeless values of love for service, lack of imposition, quality of products and luxury in simplicity are still valid today as they were in 1931.
