

Lumen Cocktails & Cuisine celebrates Arte di Vivere of The St. Regis Rome

Every year on November, The St. Regis Rome celebrates Arte di Vivere, art music and cuisine

For the second consecutive year The St. Regis Rome invited in house guests and local community to experience 3 days of high quality art, music and cuisine with an extensive program from breakfast to dinner thanks to prestigious collaborations with bands, renowned local Restaurants and art appointments signed by Galleria Continua.

Among the news for the Arte di Vivere program 2023:

- “Viaggio in Italia” new art exhibition by Hiroshi Sugimoto in collaboration with Galleria Continua and art workshops for secondary schools
- 4 hands dinners with Benito al Bosco and La Scogliera Restaurants leaded by The Executive Chef Francesco Donatelli
- Live performance of Stefano Di Battista trio jazz, Dadà DJ Set, Orchestra Convivio String Ensemble
- Lumen Talks: Rome is luxury craftsmanship with the extraordinary participation and live demonstration of Cameo Italiano, Antica Manifattura Cappelli, Gold Book by Salvatore Giorgio Dino, Coreterno
- “L’Alchimista” new glass release for Lumen, cocktails & Cuisine collection designed by Elena Salmistraro, best Italian Designer 2022.

Arte di Vivere is the art of receiving, hosting and making guests feel at home where art, music and cuisine coexists and can be enjoyed every day of the year in a rich entertainment calendar for international connoisseurs and locals. Lumen is collector of endless emotions, object d’art and unique experiences.