

The Palazzo

Hotel Palazzo del Corso is a luxurious 5-star boutique hotel located in the charming town of Gallipoli in Puglia.

It enjoys a prime location on the main street, offering easy access to the vibrant historical center, just a short walk away.

The hotel is also conveniently situated within a few kilometers of notable historical sites, making it an ideal base for those wanting to explore both the town and the wider region.

The owners

De Donno Family

The PALACE & PALACE Luxury Hotels Collection was founded 25 years ago by Pasquale De Donno, who envisioned a high-end hospitality concept in Salento, Puglia.

After acquiring and renovating an abandoned estate, he opened Palazzo del Corso in 2000, the first 5-star L hotel in the area. What began as a small boutique hotel with just 7 suites has since grown to include more than 85 rooms across 4 hotels, with new expansion projects underway.

Today, the company is in a transitional phase, led by Pasquale's daughter Maria Domenica (Didi), who brings innovation and a focus on sustainability, alongside her sister Jole, the architect responsible for the design and renovation of the properties.

The rooms

Classic

Double bedrooms (twin on request) furnished in a luxurious style, have a large French window with a balcony. From 25 msq.

Prestige

Romantic double bedrooms furnished in a luxurious classic style, have a four-poster bed and a large French window with a balcony. From 35 msq.

The suites

Glamour Suite

Bright and contemporary style suites on two levels with a sea view balcony. They have a large double bed on the lower floor and one or two extra beds on the upper floor. From 40 msq.

Grand Suite

Luxurious suites on two levels with original fresco paintings and a sea view balcony. They have two marble bathrooms, a large double bed on the upper floor and two sofa beds on the lower floor. From 50 msq.

The services

The Palazzo del Corso Hotel takes care of your wellness. It has a gym equipped Technogym, a cosy wellness centre where it is possible to book treatments and massages and a plunge pool (from May until September) on a panoramic terrace where you can spend relaxing moments, such as sunbathing, having a delicious breakfast brunch.

The DolceVita Restaurant

An extraordinary roof garden on the Palazzo del Corso, a gourmet restaurant dedicated to the smallest attention to detail to satisfy the most demanding palates. The stunning view of the Gulf of Gallipoli for delicious aperitifs and dinners under the moonlight, the preparation and dedication of our staff are only a few of our strengths. Specializing in seafood, thus paying a tribute to the lasting traditions of the “città bella”, without neglecting vegetarian and meat dishes, the “DolceVita” Restaurant offers specialties carefully prepared by our Chef Andrea Campa, always with top quality ingredients.

The city Gallipoli

Gallipoli, known as the "Pearl of the Ionian" is an important coastal center in Salento, far away only 30km from Lecce.

Its stunning beaches, crystal-clear waters and the historic old town contribute to creating a picturesque image of the city.

Visitors can explore its baroque architecture, lively seafood markets and vibrant nightlife.

The Luxury Hotels Collection

Gallipoli:

Hotel Palazzo del Corso 5* L

Relais Corte Palmieri 4*

Palazzo Mosco 4*

Otranto:

Relais Valle dell'Idro 4*

Greece:

Villa Stella Paxos

Salento's Countryside:

Masseria Scorpo

Opening soon

palacepalacecollection.com
info@hotelpalazzodelcorso.it

